MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Weekly Meeting with Mr. [REDACTED]
25 August 1959

1. For his information, I asked Mr. [REDACTED] to read our PPS memo to the DTR, dated 17 August 1959, subject: "Orientation and Training of JOT Wives for Service Overseas." He indicated his concurrence in principle with the proposed scheme but entertained reservations in regard to ceilings and budget for the payment aspects of the training periods.

2. I also left with him for information only a copy of our PPS memo to DTR, dated 21 August 1959, subject: "Junior Officers for the Clandestine Services." I iterated our belief that recruitment of junior, career professionals should be handled by one office; namely, the JOTP.
